Australia Reads is on a mission to get more people reading more books, more often. We believe reading is the key to a smarter, healthier, happier nation. Research shows that reading books can be a great way to improve your cognitive abilities, relax your body and lower your heart rate, and enhance how happy you are with life.

The CBCA Book of the Year Awards were announced at the start of Book Week. Check out this year's winners as well as comments from the judges, publishers and reviewers.
